

Floor Plan For Construction

The following are merely detailed ideas and estimate for a proposed floor plan for the tavern and pub in which members could formally talk and hang-out with each other and discuss any ideas which could be subject for further enhancement or upgrade. Said details could possibly be updated or enhanced more with the estimate that it would be fulfilled within a quarter of the year.

The ideas and details within this image may vary and be upgraded in real-time construction or first person view.

Following said details, a format for the office of the Grand Meterion is already provided in the following page.
